Advocate stabbed by DU students in road rage

In a road rage incident, a 40-year-old advocate was stabbed by two DU students in South Delhi's Hauz Khas area when his car grazed their motorbike on Monday night. The two accused were arrested on the spot. Keshav Kumar's car grazed the motorcycle of the accused persons, Manish Tivary (22) and Ashwani Kumar (23), triggering a heated argument. "The two students shouted at Kumar and one of them fished out a knife and stabbed him in the chest," a senior police officer said. Locals made a call to the Police Control Room (PCR) and took Kumar to AIIMS' trauma care where his condition is reported to be stable.
